2. INTRODUCTION

- 2.1. PAIA was enacted in February 2000, which in turn gave effect to section 32 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (“Constitution”). The Constitution affirms this right of access to any personal information held by the state, a company or person.
- 2.2. PAIA came into operation on 9 March 2001 and gives effect to the abovementioned constitutional right of access to information that may be required in order to exercise or protect rights, subject to justifiable limitations. An example of this would be those rights aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy, commercial confidentiality, as well as effective, efficient and good governance.

- 2.3. This PAIA Manual is compiled in accordance with PAIA, POPIA, and the associated regulations. POPIA amended certain provisions of PAIA in order to balance the need for access to information, against the need to ensure the protection of Personal Information.
- 2.4. Records that are excluded from PAIA are those requested for the purpose of criminal or civil proceedings. Where a Record is sought after the commencement of proceedings, and it can be obtained through the rules of discovery, then the Requester will not be entitled to rely on PAIA¹.
- 2.5. Access to Records should be provided if²:
- 2.5.1. the Record is required for the exercise or protection of any of the Requester's legal rights, or in the public interest (in case of certain public bodies);
 - 2.5.2. the Requester complies with all procedural requirements; and
 - 2.5.3. access is not refused on any ground referred to in PAIA or any other applicable law.
- 2.6. The purpose of this Manual is to inform the Requester of the procedural and other requirements with which a PAIA request for access to records must comply. It explains the process of how one can object to the processing of Personal Information, as well as requests to delete or destroy such Personal Information and/or Records.
- 2.7. The Company is dedicated to ensuring compliance with POPIA and PAIA in order to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within the Company. As such, the Company gives effect to the right to information in order to enable and promote the protection of these rights.

9. SECURITY MEASURES IMPLEMENTED TO ENSURE THE CONFIDENTIALITY, INTEGRITY, AND AVAILABILITY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The manner of access to Personal Information in terms of section 23 of POPIA should be in accordance with section 53 of PAIA.
- 10.2. The purpose of paragraphs 11 to 19 of this PAIA Manual is to provide Requesters with guidelines to facilitate a request for access to a record held by the Company. An application for access to Information can be refused on substantive grounds, alternatively, in the event that the application does not comply with the formalities as prescribed by PAIA. In turn, the completion and submission of an access request form does not automatically entitle the Requester to access the requested Record.

⁴ Section 23(1) of POPIA provides that a Data Subject, having provided adequate proof of identity, has the right to - a) request a responsible party to confirm, free of charge, whether or not the responsible party holds personal information about the Data Subject; and b) request from a responsible Party the Record or a description of the personal information about the Data Subject held by the responsible Party, including information about the identity of all Third parties, or categories of Third parties, who have, or have had, access to the information

11.COMPLETION OF THE PRESCRIBED FORMS

- 11.1. When requesting access to a Record or Personal Information, a Requester must complete the prescribed form, or where applicable submit their requests as set out in this Manual.
- 11.2. Should a Requester be illiterate or disabled, a request for access to a Record may be made verbally at the Company's head office, where the Information Officer will assist in completing such prescribed access form.
- 11.3. A Requester can be any person making a request for access to a Record of the Company. PAIA distinguishes between the following two types of Requesters:
 - 11.3.1. A "Personal Requester" is a requester who, having provided adequate proof of identity, is seeking access to a Record containing personal information about the Personal Requester him-/herself. Subject to the provisions of PAIA and POPIA, the Company will provide the requested information or give access to any record with regard to the Personal Requester's Personal Information within a reasonable time, in a reasonable manner and format, and in a form that is generally understandable. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the Personal Information requested will be charged by the Company on application by the Requester;
 - 11.3.2. A person falling in the category of "Other Requester" is entitled to request access to information pertaining to Third Parties. However, the Company is not obliged to grant access prior to the Requester fulfilling the requirements for access to information in terms of PAIA and POPIA. The Form 2, attached hereto as Annexure B, must be addressed and submitted to the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer by hand or e-mail. The details of these Information Officers are contained within this Manual under paragraph 3.4.
 - 11.3.3. The prescribed form, or prescribed manner as set out by this Manual must be completed with enough particularity to enable the Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer to identify the following:
 - 11.3.3.1. the identity of the Requester;
 - 11.3.3.2. particulars of the Record requested;
 - 11.3.3.3. the type of Record;
 - 11.3.3.4. form of access required; and
 - 11.3.3.5. the right the Requester is seeking to exercise or protect.
- 11.4.1. Some additional points to remember when completing the request form furthermore includes:

- 11.4.1.1. each section of the form contains instructions that should be followed to improve the likelihood of the request being granted with minimal delay being experienced;
 - 11.4.1.2. if Records are requested on behalf of another person, a copy of the mandate authorising the Requester to act on behalf of another person must be provided;
 - 11.4.1.3. a detailed description of the Record being requested must be provided to enable the Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer to identify it accurately;
 - 11.4.1.4. an explanation must be provided of why the requested Record is required for the exercise or protection of the right that the Requester is seeking to enforce or protect;
- 11.4.2. The Requester must indicate whether the requested Record(s) is preferred in any particular language. If the Record is not available in the preferred language, access may be granted in the language in which the Record is available.
- 11.4.3. The Requester should indicate the manner in which he/she wishes to be informed of the decision on the request and the necessary particulars to be informed accordingly.
- 11.4.4. The Requester will receive the information in such manner as indicated. Section 29(3) of PAIA indicates that making available the information will depend on whether the request will not interfere unreasonably with the effective administration of the Company, be detrimental to the preservation of the Record(s) or infringe any copyright not owned by the Company.
- 11.4.5. A request for access to information will be returned by the Company and will result in undue delay if the prescribed access form is not completed in full, or alternatively, does not comply with this PAIA manual. In such a case, the Company will not be held liable for such delay.
- 11.4.6. A verbal request for access to a Record(s) may be made if the Requester does not have a formal education or has a disability. The Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer will assist the Requester to complete the prescribed form on behalf of such Requester and provide him/her with a copy of the completed form.

12.3.3.2. the Requester is married and his/her joint income, after permissible deductions, such as PAYE and UIF, is less than R27 192 per annum.

12.3.4. If the preparation of the Record for disclosure and related arrangements requires more than the prescribed hours to process, the Requester may be required to pay a prescribed deposit on the request of the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer.

12.3.5. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access which is subsequently refused, the deposit will be refunded to the Requester.

12.3.6. Once a decision to grant a request for access to Records has been approved, the Record will only be provided after the required fees have been paid in full.

12.3.7. POPIA provides that a Data Subject (as defined in POPIA) and herein referred to as Personal Requesters, may, upon providing proof of identity, request the Company to confirm, free of charge, all the information it holds about the Data Subject. Requesters may furthermore request access to such information, including information about the identity of Third Parties, who have or have had access to such information.

12.3.8. POPIA also provides that, where the Data Subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to the Requester, the Company must provide the Data Subject with a written estimate of the amount payable before providing the service. This can include that the Data Subject pay a deposit for all or part of the fee. Records may be withheld until the fees have been paid in full.

12.3.9. Four types of fees are provided for in PAIA:

12.3.9.1. Request Fee: An initial, non-refundable amount of R57.50 (VAT inclusive) is payable upon submission of a request. This fee is not applicable to personal requesters, which is a reference to any person seeking access to records that contain their personal information;

12.3.9.2. Reproduction Fee: This fee is payable with regard to all records that are automatically available;

- 12.3.9.3. Access Fee: If the request for access is successful, an access fee may be required to reimburse the Company for the costs involved in the search, reproduction and/or preparation of the relevant record, and will be calculated based on the prescribed fees; and,
- 12.3.9.4. Deposit: A deposit equal to one third (1/3) of the amount of the applicable access fee is payable if the Company receives a request for access to information held on a person other than the Requester himself/herself and the preparation of the record will take longer than six (6) hours. In the event that access is refused to the requested record, the full deposit will be refunded to the Requester.

Should this not be done, the Third Party can be requested to give written consent for the disclosure of the Record.
- 12.4.3. The Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer must as soon as reasonably possible, but within 30 days after every Third Party is informed as per 12.4.1 above, after giving due regard to any representations of such Third Party, decide whether to grant the request for access. The Third Party will subsequently be notified of the decision, including the reasons and provisions of PAIA relied upon to justify the granting of access. The Requester will likewise be notified of the decision.
- 12.4.4. If a Third Party is not informed of a request, despite all reasonable steps having been taken, any decision whether to grant the request for access shall be made with due regard to the fact that the Third Party did not have the opportunity to make representations.
- 12.4.5. If a request for access to a Record has been granted the Third Party may lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or bring an application to the relevant court within 30 days of such notice of the outcome of the request for access to information.

13. OUTCOME OF REQUEST

- 13.1. The request for information will be processed by the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer within 30 days (the “original period”) after receipt of the request. The Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer will then inform the Requester of his/her decision to either grant or reject the request for access to Records. The decision shall, if reasonably possible, be communicated in the manner requested by the Requester.
- 13.2. The Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer may extend the original period once for a further period of not more than 30 days if:
 - 13.2.1. the request is for a large number of Records or requires a search through a large number of Records, and compliance with the original period would unreasonably interfere with the activities of the Company;
 - 13.2.2. the request requires a search for Records in, or collection thereof from, an office of the Company not situated in the same town or city as the office of the Information Officer and cannot reasonably be completed within the original period;
 - 13.2.3. consultation among divisions of the Company or with another private body is necessary or desirable to decide upon the request and such decision making process cannot reasonably be completed within the original period;
 - 13.2.4. more than one of the circumstances contemplated herein above exist in respect of the request, making compliance with the original period not reasonably possible; or
 - 13.2.5. the Requester provides consent in writing.
- 13.3. The Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer will within the original period, notify the requester in writing of the period of the extension and provide the reasons for the extension.
- 13.4. The original period (or the “extended period”) will only commence once a Requester has complied with all the requirements for a request of access to a record to the satisfaction of the Information Officer and/or the Deputy Information Officer.
- 13.5. The Requester will be informed of the outcome of a request in writing, which written notification will at least contain the reasons for the refusal, the provisions of PAIA relied on, and the details as set out in Form 3.
- 13.6. If the Requester is not provided with a decision on a request for access within the applicable period, it shall be regarded as a refusal of the request.
- 13.7. If a request for access has been granted, provided that the necessary fees have been paid (where applicable), access will be provided to the Requester in manner in which the Requester reasonably requested or in such form as the Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer reasonably determines.

- 13.8. The Requester will be given access to the Record after expiry of the applicable periods should a Third-Party object to the granting of access.
- 13.9. If a request for access to a Record has been refused, delayed or granted (Subject to unreasonable fees or is granted for an unacceptable form of access), in terms of an unreasonable procedure or in case of an unacceptable extension of the period within which the requester must be informed of the outcome of his application for access, and the Requester may furthermore lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator as set out in the Manual, alternatively, lodge an application in the relevant court within 30 days of such notice of the outcome.

14. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS AND LIMITATIONS

- 14.1. Requests may be refused, amongst others, on the following grounds, as set out in PAIA:
 - 14.1.1. Unreasonable disclosure of Personal Information of a third party, including a deceased person;
 - 14.1.2. if the Record contains trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, the disclosure of which would likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the third party or the Company, or is a computer program owned by the Company;
 - 14.1.3. if disclosure would result in the breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party;
 - 14.1.4. if the Record contains trade secrets, financial or sensitive information, or any information that would put the Company at a disadvantage in negotiations, or prejudice the Company in commercial competition;
 - 14.1.5. if disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;
 - 14.1.6. if disclosure would be likely to prejudice or impair the security of a building, structure or system, (including, but not limited to, a computer or communication system), means of transport or any other property;
 - 14.1.7. if disclosure would be likely to prejudice and/or impair methods, systems, plans or procedures for the protection of an individual in accordance with a witness protection scheme, the safety of the public or any part of the public, or the security of a building, structure or system (including, but not limited to a computer or communication system), a means of transport or any other property;

14.1.8. if the Records are privileged or produced during legal proceedings, unless the legal privilege has been waived; and/or

14.1.9. if the Record contains information about research being carried out or to be carried out on behalf of a Third Party or the Company, the disclosure of which would be likely to expose the Third Party or the Company, or a person that is or will be carrying out the research or the Subject matter of the research to a serious disadvantage.

14.2. A Record may not be refused in so far as it consists of information about a Third Party who has consented in terms of section 72 of PAIA or in writing, granting disclosure to the Requester concerned.

14.3. Furthermore, a Record may not be refused in so far as it consists of information about the results of any product or environmental testing or any other investigation supplied by a Third Party, the results of any such testing or investigation carried out by / on behalf of a Third Party, whereas its disclosure would reveal a serious public safety or environmental risk. However, this excludes in so far as it was conducted for the purpose of developing methods of testing or other investigation.

14.4. Disclosure of a Record is compulsory if it would reveal evidence of the following nature:

14.4.1. a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with, the law; or

14.4.2. imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk; and,

14.4.3. the public interest in the disclosure of the Record in question clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by its disclosure.

14.5. If the request for access to information affects a Third Party, then such Third Party must first be informed within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of the request. The Third Party would then have a further twenty-one (21) days to make representations and/or submissions regarding the granting of access to the Record.

14.6. An application for access to a Record is Subject to certain limitations if the requested Record falls within a certain category as specified in Part 3 of Chapter 4 of PAIA. If it is reasonably suspected that the Requester has obtained access to the Company's Records through the submission of materially false or misleading information, legal proceedings may be instituted against such Requester.

14.7. If a request for access is made to a Record containing information which may or must be refused, every part of the Record which does not contain such information and can be reasonably severed from any part that contains such information shall be disclosed.

- 14.8. Requests for access to health or similar Records shall be Subject to section 61⁵ of PAIA.

15. REMEDIES AVAILABLE IN THE EVENT OF REFUSAL OF ACCESS AND OF PROVISIONS OF PAIA ARE NOT COMPLIED WITH

15.1. External Remedies

Any person may submit a complaint to the Information Regulator in the prescribed manner and form, should he or she be aggrieved by the determination of an adjudicator, or, when alleged that there was interference with the protection of the personal information of a Data Subject. The complaint must be submitted via Form 5.

15.1.2. A Requester or a Third Party that has been aggrieved by a decision in relation to a request for access to a Record of that body, may within 180 days apply to court for appropriate relief in terms of section 82. Such an appeal must be lodged in the High Court of the Republic of South Africa or any other court with the necessary jurisdiction.

16. RECORDS THAT CANNOT BE FOUND/DO NOT EXIST

- 16.1. If the Company has taken all reasonable steps to locate a requested Record and there are reasonable grounds to believe that the Record does not exist or cannot

(a) of the requester; or

(b) if the request has been made on behalf of the person to whom the record relates, of that person, (in this section, the requester and person referred to paragraphs (a) and (b), respectively, are referred to as the “relevant person”), is of the opinion that the disclosure of the record to the relevant person might cause serious harm to his or her physical or mental health, or well-being, the information officer may, before giving access in terms of section 60, consult with a health practitioner who, subject to subsection (2), has been nominated by the relevant person.

(2) If the relevant person is—

(a) under the age of 16 years, a person having parental responsibilities for the relevant person must make the nomination contemplated in subsection (1); or

(b) incapable of managing his or her affairs, a person appointed by the court to manage those affairs must make that nomination.

(3)(a) If, after being given access to the record concerned, the health practitioner consulted in terms of subsection (1) is of the opinion that the disclosure of the record to the relevant person, would be likely to cause serious harm to his or her physical or mental health, or well-being, the head may only give access to the record if the requester proves to the satisfaction of the head that adequate provision is made for such counselling or arrangements as are reasonably practicable before, during or after the disclosure of the record to limit, alleviate or avoid such harm to the relevant person.

(b) Before access to the record is so given to the requester, the person responsible for such counselling or arrangements must be given access to the record.

be located, the Requester will be notified thereof by the Company by way of an affidavit or affirmation. This document will provide a full account of all the steps taken in an attempt to locate the Record, including all communications with every person who conducted the search on behalf of the Company.

- 16.2. The notice above will be regarded, for the purposes of PAIA, as a decision to refuse such request for access to the Record.
- 16.3. Should the Record in question be located by the Company at any stage thereafter, access will be given to the Requester, in so far as the Requester may continuously be entitled to such access.

17. OBJECTION TO THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 17.1. POPIA provides that a Data Subject, a person acting on behalf of the Data Subject, or a Person with sufficient interest in the matter may object, at any time, to the processing of Personal Information by the Company on reasonable grounds relating to the particular situation, unless legislation provides for such processing. incomplete, misleading, and/or obtained unlawfully. This request must stipulate a request to destroy or delete a Record of Personal Information about the Data Subject, indicating that the Company is no longer authorised to retain such information in terms of POPIA's specific retention and restriction provisions.
